Sat:10th March. 2012.

To Nick Kahwaji, Secretary General.

It is with a sense of great pride and honour that we hear of this wonderful gathering of our Lebanese brothers and sisters from around the world.

Time and space prevents us from being with you.

Mexico City is a great place to be.

Added is a wonderful Lebanese Community.

We are so envious of you all.

Those chosen to be with you must consider it both an honour and a privilege.

Every moment, every word is important.

Fellowship and brotherhood must reign supreme.

There is no other alternative.

Lebanon needs you.

The world needs you.

The ideals, vision and mission are so noble.

The resounding words of President Sleiman Franjeh must be echoed.

“Lebanon will remain, as built by our ancestors, united by its two wings, without which it cannot rise.....

that of immigration and the motherland”.

Away with petty politics and hidden agendas.

May your deliberations be fruitful, and truthful.

With Sincere best wishes and love,

Ken Hanna.
