

This book is a collection of stories on the Lebanese South African done by the editor of the Magazine "Cedar Leaf", Ken Hanna, who collected information and pictures about the Lebanese families who first came to South Africa at the end of the 19th Century, and how they and their children and grandchildren built their lives and future in this new land. Many interesting stories and rare old pictures have been collected. The editing, illustrations and layout were done by Fr. Charbel Habchi (MLM - Maronite Lebanese Missionary). This book is a message of perseverance, hope, love and achievements.
