

International Day of the Lebanese Emigrant 2017, at SFU

Event sponsored by the CCSMC (SFU) and WLCU-BC Council

Under the patronage of the Embassy of Lebanon in Ottawa – H.E. Counsellor & Chargé d'Affaires Mr. Sami Haddad

Friday, March 3, 2017

4.00pm: Transplanting the Lebanese cedar tree, beside Gibran monument, SFU Burnaby mountain. (Lebanese ambassador, WLCU, SFU officials to take part, photo souvenir)

6.00pm: Private dinner with Lebanese ambassador, WLCU officials, SFU representatives, official guests to celebrate 9 years of cooperation between the CCSMSC and the WLCU- BC Council.

Jam Jar Restaurant in Granville and 11, Vancouver

Gibran Memorial at SFU Burnaby Campus

Saturday, March 4, 2017 4.00pm:

Visiting the Lebanese memorial square, Queen Elizabeth Park.

5.30pm: Meeting at SFU, Downtown Campus at Harbour center).

6.00pm (Auditorium Fletcher Challenge Theatre): Registration.

- Introduction.

Flash Back Memories and Tributes

-Lebanese Canadian house.

7.30pm: Opening

the International Lebanese Short Film Festival version 2.

9.00pm:

- Official announcement

-Introducing local officers.

- WLCU-BC Council

9.30pm: Reception, food, drinks, photo souvenir.

“...The thousands of brave men and women who left their families and loved ones in search of a better life overseas, those who struggled all of their lives for the sake of their children and grandchildren, and gave their country a great image, were the Lebanese heroes under different skies., Therefore they deserve to be remembered and recognized...”

Ambassador Nouhad Mahmoud (Mexico)

* Free Admission ****
* Registration Required ****

For registration: Lcsbc@ulcm.org

For inquiry

Dr. Nick Kahwaji – (604- 773- 1462)

Nick.Kahwaji@ulcm.org

Carla Zarifeh – (604-818-3217)

Carla.Zarifeh@ulcm.org

Nicolas Haddad - (604-360-7327)

Nicolas.haddad@ulcm.org

WLCU-BC Council

CCSMSC-SFU

