

Joumana Bou Fakhreddine

Independent Journalist

Mobile: +961-76765019

Email:joumanaboufakhreddine@gmail.com

Winter Address: Greater Beirut, Rawche, Ezzeddine Building 3rd floor

Summer Address: Mount Lebanon – Hamana District- Koubbieh town, el Aien street, house number is 116/100

May, 14th, 2014

To whom it may concern,

Dear Sir,

My career is sunshine of great passion and intellectualism.

Every day is new challenge of dedication, and brilliant communication.

Humanity in action is my stamp and main catalyst for great achievements in both business work and journalistic work.

My love for knowledge made me enter management world with great leadership and achievements.

My integrity is my projection of high quality of worked achieved. I have 15 years' experience of journalism and four years' experience as country manager.

My expertise is beautifully varied as the sea with different combination between business world and media world.

I am self-starter that always using power of research, knowledge, endorsing my unique communication skills, using simple manner my empowering my best analytical vision and common sense to accomplish the career goals along with community development as a long term basis.

Ebbs and tides of non-stability of Lebanon made my experience remarkably positive as multi oriented.

I am expert in these given topics Middle East politics, International politics towards Middle East, Philosophy, Lebanese history, American history, great knowledge in religious issues precisely Bible New testament, social media issues with Arab spring revolution, business branding, business marketing, Media issues/ and campaigns

Expert in communication, research, writing, critical analyzing skills, brilliant in creating and developing academic/ business projects

I stand out with freedom and unique identity, I always be dedicated to career missions that grow human understanding towards prosperous community.

I am looking forward for an interview, so that to have the stunning opportunity to join your team.

kindly more information will be found in details via my resume and if any recommendation needed will be available upon your request

Wholeheartedly,

Joumana